What is BUFDG?

The British Universities Finance Directors Group (BUFDG) is the representative body for higher education finance staff in the United Kingdom. Our members are the Directors of Finance and Chief Financial Officers of UK higher education institutions, and their staff. We are entirely owned by our member HE institutions and are not-for-profit.

Our objectives

BUFDG has three primary objectives: To inform, guide, and support; To facilitate networking and development; and, To partner, coordinate, advocate, and influence.

It's for Everyone

Who can access BUFDG?

Any member of staff at your university is welcome to sign up for a website account. This provides access to all BUFDG services including financial resources, information, reports, news, the discussion boards, our e-learning suite, and all other learning & development.

Over 8,000 staff at UK universities currently benefit from BUFDG access. These are mostly from within finance teams or other finance or procurement roles across the university, but also include staff from a wide variety of roles covering areas such as planning, facilities, HR, governance, and beyond.

If your institution is a member of BUFDG then you can sign up for a website account here. If you're not sure if your institution is a member or not, take a look at the list of members here.

If your institution is not yet a member but is interested in joining BUFDG, then read on to find out more about the benefits of BUFDG, and how to apply, below:

Lastly... What is PHES?

Professional HE Services Ltd (PHES) is a limited company owned by UK universities. It provides an operating framework for membership organisations that support the HE sector, known as Special Interest Organisations (SIOs). PHES enables SIOs to share staff and other resources, and to operate effectively and efficiently.

There are currently seven SIOs under the PHES 'umbrella', of which BUFDG is just one. The others are the Association of University Directors of Estates (AUDE), the Higher Education Strategic Planners Association (HESPA), Universities Human Resources (UHR), the Council of Higher Education Internal Auditors (CHEIA), the Association of University Legal Practitioners (AULP), and College and University Business Officers (CUBO).

Each organisation has its own structure and terms of reference and is run by its own executive. Please let us know in your application if you would like to also consider membership of other PHES organisations. Find out more about PHES here.
